

DOWNTOWN BROOKINGS INFORMER

September 25

Issue #: 5

Music on Main This Week

October 1st 5-7 PM

Paul Peterson

Pluck 'n and work 'n those strings for yer ears. Watertown, SD.

Banners Are Coming

That's right, our design committee is putting the finishing touches on banners that will be located on six poles on Main Ave. Interior banners will be changed out for several downtown events and holidays.

DBI's Newest Intern

We would like to welcome April Lewis, Senior Parks and Recreation student as our Fall and Winter Intern.

Upcoming Downtown Events

Spooks Downtown - October 29 - 30 - 31

Project Joy - November 14

Festival of Lights - November 27

Holiday Indulgence & Fashion Show - December 12

 Downtown Brookings

 Downtown Brookings

 DowntownBkgs

Keep Our Wheels Turning!

Hey Downtown Brookings supporters, help us keep our financial gears turning with something that you do almost everyday. It only takes a second...and you can help us move forward on numerous important projects!

Go to Goodsearch.com, select Downtown Brookings, Inc. as your non-profit recipient. Everytime you search, Downtown Brookings, Inc. receives a cent. They say, every penny counts...well now it really does!

DBI Joins Student Discount Club

SDSU Student Association has created a discount program for businesses to attract students. Show your ID, get a discount. FREE for businesses to participate, this program also links into social media and the SA's website. Can't beat cheap advertising to thousands of great customers. Only 20 businesses are allowed for the pilot program though. So, if your business hasn't signed up...get to it quickly...because time is running out to be one of the first.

For more information contact Downtown Brookings, Inc.

Does your business or organization want to submit information for this newsletter? Send it to downtown@brookings.net with newsletter in the subject line.

Downtown Brookings is a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation working to stimulate economic development in Downtown Brookings and to promote it as an exciting place to shop, work, play, live and invest.